6. New Business
  - a. Gelser Farm Discussion – The Gelser farm has property in Dalton, in Livingston County as well as farmland in Allegany County. They are interested in building a manure storage facility, but the storage would be located in Livingston County. The farm is having trouble getting grant funding from Livingston, and were wondering if Allegany County would be willing to get them funding for the project. The Board decided that they would like the farm to ask Livingston SWCD again to get grant funding, and if they cannot, for Livingston SWCD to ask our district to apply for them on Livingston’s behalf. The Board would like a written request from Livingston County asking for the district to apply on their behalf.
